Attention of Mr. J. C. Powers.

My dear Mr. Powers:-

We have received your bill for the second edition of the 260 copies of the Clare Sheridan Catalogue. Mr. Wood, our Curator, has called my attention to the fact that this bill is practically at the same rate per copy as your first bill. It seems to me that since there was no composition necessary for this lot, that the charge is perhaps a little high. I am not inclined to question the bill, but merely want to call your attention to this fact before ordering it paid.

Very truly yours,

Assistant to Curator.

Attention: Mr. Arthur C. Wyman,
Assistant to Curator.

My dear Mr. Wyman:-

I have your letter of the 24th, relating to our bill for a reprint of the Sheridan Sculptures, and I have gone over the cost sheets on which the charge was based in billing. I find by close examination, that the cost in one of the operations was excessive to what it should have been and I enclose you credit memorandum for $20.00.

Please understand that while we had this matter up in type, it was taken out of form after about a week, for we have to use chases and the lockup, make-up, etc. had to be done all over again. You and your office understand enough about manufacturing to know that the preparation of a small order is as great as a large one.

I trust that this will be a satisfactory adjustment, and remain,

Very truly yours,

J. C. & W. E. POWERS,

President.
